“ We lived across the street from Connie and all the family (our names Scott and David). The whole family was nice. Connie was honestly one of the nicest, kindest people we ever met.

Scott and David - January 21, 2018 at 03:06 PM

“ Just remembering what a sweet person she was, she was the one of the best teachers I had there in Albany, Oh just knowing her as one of the great persons in my life has made me a better person, looking forward to meeting her again in a much better land. My prayers & love for all the family left behind. Vicky Kirk, Gabrielson

“ Connie was a beautiful woman and will be missed by all who know her. When I remember her she is always wearing her 'cats-eye' glasses. Sympathy and prayers for her family and friends.

“ Aunt Connie was one of my favorite aunts... she helped raise me and my brother for awhile after our mother passed away when we were 7 and 5 years old. She will always have a place in my heart. I had the privelage of getting to visit with her, uncle Eddie, and all my cousins and their families for awhile the last two days we had her here with us. I will always cherish those last few hours. Aunt Connie, please do just one more thing for me if you will... tell mom I love her and really miss her.
