“ Connie was everything I could ever wish to be. She was so genuine and never had an unkind word to say about anyone or anything. She was so incredibly brave .She worried more about what others were going through than herself. I'm honored to have known her and call her my friend. Godspeed Connie RIP.

“ When I was a kid, Connie knew how to adjust all my clothes to fit my size. She was a constant source of reinforcement - she made even the wrong sizes work! When I was in high school she sewed a dress for me - it was for Andrea's wedding – satin pink...nothing worked at that age, but she seemed to know how to make me feel complete. That dress later doubled as a prom gown - Connie - you knew how to make me smile. When my son Leo was born she brought over a very cool patterned blanket. He's 10. Still has it. We have a Raggedy Ann doll at the house - she is more than 35 years old. I hated to tell Connie that my 5 year old cut her perfect red yarn hair - but, of course, Connie said - no problem! There are more of those homemade carefully stitched goods that Connie made for me. What a blessing that I could share these with my children. Connie - you were a quiet force in my life and a thread in my being. Thank you for being a part of our family. Maria M. O'Reilly
