“ Hey Courtney it's been a few years now but it has not gotten any easier. This world is a lot quieter without you! I miss your contagious laughter. You were so stunning with your gorgeously white and perfect teeth gleaming with your bright smile every day I saw you. Dude I have so much to tell you and sometimes I forget that that's not possible anymore. I pray that we meet up in the next life and that you're saving my seat like you always did on the school bus growing up. I love you sweet Courtney and you are so very missed.
