“ Jerry,Jeremy,Jarrood and family, Marty and I are heartbroken over your loss of Cindy. I have so so many happy, funny memories of the 9 years we spent as your neighbor. Cindy was a loving, caring, very special friend. She had a soft spoken, warm, kind, gentle spirit that will be remembered. We are thinking of you all....one of my favorite sayings....the loss of a mother can never be replaced, but the love of a mother can never be lost...she will always be with you❤️🙏 with much Love and hugs, Marty and Melody Pastura

I'm so very sorry to hear of the loss of your precious wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, daughter-in-law and sister. I met Cindy years ago when I worked at Big Bear for 12 years. She was very sweet & and we became friends. She loved her family very much. My mother , Anna Louise Estes, deceased now went to school with her mother & knew her mother & father-in- law. You all are in my prayers. May you feel God's love & presence at this time.*

“ My dear friend Cindy...I met you through my gift shop in Hurricane called Pumpkin House Primitives. You and your momma Gail made dolls that graced my shop and how my customers loved your creations. We would always talk about country good stuff and everything we both equally loved about decorating. I just spoke with you by text earlier this year checking on how you were doing. I am so very sorry Cindy but know you are in your heavenly home. ❤️
