“ Daniel, you were my only son. I love you and miss you. But the greatest gifts you gave me was the day you were born, and at the hospital when you asked me to hold your hand, I did, and you said "Thank you", and I said "for what son", and you said " For being my mom, and always staying with me", and I said "Son, I will NEVER leave you". You smiled at me and went to sleep. The comfort and love you gave me in that moment was more precious than gold. I knew then, why God gave me you. I needed you, and you needed me. I love you so much. But I know you are ok now, but that don't ease the pain. I'll say your name every single day of my life and I'll never skip one day without saying I love you, thank you for the honor of being your mom. I love you my baby boy, I always will.
