“ I love you more than you knew and will miss you forever. You are such a rascal and enjoyed just getting one over on someone no matter who but that is just one of your most loveable qualities. I am so proud to be your sister. Your devotion to your family, friends and country is something you don't see in this day and age. You are, as the Preacher said, an original and we need many more just like you. I wish we had more time together.

We are so sorry for your loss of Darrell. We know for a fact he enjoyed his times with you thoughtly. On numerous occasions, he told Chuck and I how much he loved you and enjoyed his Harley rides with you! We will also miss him, waving as he drove by, and honking his horn. He was a great guy.
