“ Beach you ment so much to Mom Billie Black, myself, James, Ashley and all the kids. Your daughter Kristen and her husband Frankie. Your grandbabies loved you and will never forget all the good times they got to have with you. You was the type of person to give the shirt off your back. You had a dark sense of humor but after life hadn't ever been kind to you it was your way of coping. You gave up a good fight and I'm so thankful that even before I was your actual caregiver I was whom you'd call up and say hey sis you wanna come take care of some stuff for me. You knew I'd always come running. We was friends before we became family. Im so happy you got to see me buy my car and get my learners. I promise to follow threw and get those licenses. Im so happy when we took the first trip to Apple Grove I got to drive us back. You told me later when we got back that you was scared at first being unsure of how I'd actually do but told me how proud you was of me for how well I did. You was always my hype man. We are all so thankful we got to give you the birthday you asked for you got that pizza got to see your daughter and the only ones missing was jesse and colter. The min I get your ashes im hanging you off my review mirror and we going road tripping just as we had planned for this summer. I promise as always mom will be taken care of. Watch over us all. I hope you got you a brand new set of legs and went running for your mom and hound dog as I know you've missed them both. Its not been easy this last week without you but we are all holding it together the best we can.

Fly high my dear friend,
Love Always Sis

“ David , you always had such a good caring heart . You never let your limitations get you down. We have so many memories of you , I can't even begin to post here. You were only 13 years old when we met you. You always had a smile each time we seen you. I guess God wanted your kind soul and contagious smile in heaven. You will be missed by so many people.
