“ It has been one of my most happy turns of luck to have found a friend in David (Davie) and Family. In the painfully short 40 years of knowing him I have found an extraordinary friend and confidant who's life could have been a much more tragic one had it not been for his consistent demonstration of his incessant will to surmount anything thrown at him.

While too often my connection to and with him suffered from distance and what now seems such trivially shameful speed bumps in life , I relished every call . His compassion for others -until it proved self endangering- was a hall mark of his character. His knowledge of how things worked physically -likely spawned by his own physical problems - served him so well in Auto Mechanics, and Home building and maintenance ,and by example and practice he helped a lot of people think thru their specific problems and suggest or perform efficient corrective work.

He leaves in his passing the two major loves of his life his dear wife Bidy and Daughter Ashley ,and what must be by now hundreds of acquaintances ,co workers ,clients and friends and Family .

I will miss his quiet wisdom and his frequent sly laughter at all things of life and Politics.

Rest my friend , where your walk way is now all so much easier .
