

David Lee Higginbotham

June 28, 1966 - November 16, 2013

David Lee Higginbotham, 47, of Fraziers Bottom passed away suddenly November 16, 2013 at his home of apparent heart disease.

Born June 28, 1966 in South Charleston, he was a son of the late Gerald L. and Dolores Jean Crago Higginbotham. He was also preceded in death by his sister, Teresa Lynn Higginbotham.

David was a 1984 graduate of Hurricane High School and was a member of VFW Post 9097, Teays Valley. He was currently employed as a truck driver with E. I. DuPont and had formerly driven for both Miller and Dana Transports as well as owning and operating his own trucking business.

Surviving are his wife, Benita Carpenter Higginbotham; his daughters, Kara and Lea Higginbotham both of St. Albans; his step-daughter, Chloe Holley of Hurricane; his sister, Lisa Higginbotham Langley of Hurricane; his uncle, Robert G. Higginbotham of St. Albans; his aunt, Betty J. Higginbotham Bradley of Naperville, IL; his nephews, Derek, Alex and Ethan Langley.

“ I worked at Dupont and got to know Dave very well. He hauled all of our chemicals we made. When he would come in yo get a load he would always have time to talk, not just come in and go in a hurry. I know we all will miss him. He was a good man.
