“Dave was one in a million, he always stood for what was right. When he married Jean he became one of the best parts of the Lavender family, I'll never forget how he helped Tom & stood up for Paul. Loved the talks we had, the world has lost a beautiful soul.

“As I was going through pictures today I thought of many times with Papaw but the one that stands out the most was when he let me drive around the subdivision... He got very upset with me because I didn't turn on my blinker and needless to say I argued with him that we were just pulling out of the circle and it wasn't a big deal... The irony of this story is that I failed my driving test three times ! We are going to miss you Papaw..
