“Denny and Peggy were our neighbors for many years. Great neighbors and friends. Denny was the kindest person. He was a great conversationalist and was a joy to talk to. We will really miss him. Our sympathy and prayers to his family. Brien he was so very proud of you and Andi. He talked to us many times about the obstacles you overcame, your career, and your business. He also spoke about your wife and his fondness of her. Oh the dogs too. Andi he always said he would not let you do physical therapy for him because you would kill him. A big laugh followed this statement! Zack man I believe that was the name he called you, and Peyton he had much love for you also. He spoke of you often. Please remember how proud of you he was. We will miss him and we were Blessed to have him and Peggy as our friends. GOD bless you and remember the precious soul he was. Rest in Peace dear friend.
