“ I am so glad that my son Richard had the opportunity to learn, play and be coached by Dick. He was a great baseball coach who taught and cared for each of his players.he will be sadly missed. Now he is in "The Field of Dreams" meeting his legends and the greatest coach ever, his GOD. May GOD watch over the Whitney family, giving them strength, great memories, and the love that Dick shared with them.

“ We wish to offer our sincere condolence to the family.

My parents, Madonna & Chester Junkins, were good friends with Barbara & Jack and we are fortunate enough to purchase and live in the home Dick and Diann were raised in here in Clarksburg.

Thank you for putting Dick's obituary in the Clarksburg Exponent.
