“ Donna Sue was my mothers cousin and I heard many times over the years, Peggy(mom) would tease that she was the elder as she was born 10 days prior to Donna Sue. As they aged, Donna turned the tables and there was laughter throughout the house that mom was "the old lady" now. I only realized this was here today and had to add that story. Donna Sue is missed terribly, along with her loud laugh and huge sense of humor. She came from little and made the best of it, insisting on living HAPPY even through great loss around her. We cannot help but smile about her, knowing she is with God in Heaven.

“ Always, remember growing up and hanging out at the Cyrus home with Brian and some great times in the back yard. Mr. C taught me how to wax a car, "correctly" as he would say. Will never forget Mrs C. She would raise her voice at us like we were her own. And her laugh was infectuos. She would offer advice, hugs, and some great food.

Rest in Peace Mrs. C.

“ We first met on the plane from New York to Aruba. I was sitting by the window, my husband in the middle, and Sue on the aisle. She was practically sitting in Chucks lap to see out the window. Well we just fell in love with Sue there in Aruba. She reminded me so much of my mother who had just passed 4 months before. She laughed and was like a young girl on the 12 hour Jeep ride exploring the island. She also LOVED my husbands hair long, can you believe it!! He was growing it for Locks of Love and she didn't want him to cut it! We called her momma Sue and we will miss her!
