“ I grew up in a family full of shopaholics with their close friend shopaholics that would all raise me to master the art of spending money. And Doris was no exception of teaching me right. Shopping days with her and my MawMaw were always a treat; for those were days I had 2 mawmaws shopping for little pink dresses, barbies, books, and treating me to happy meals. Doris, you made me feel like one of your own. You celebrated each of my successes, my wedding, and my sweet Abby as if they were yours. Every card I will hold dear; you made every gift so special. And when my hero had to leave us there you were; the one there finding the secret messages he was leaving to me along the way. You brightened my day in the midst of heartache and it's a moment I will always cherish. I'm so thankful for the friendship you shared with my Mawmaw, for she is blessed to have had you; and the rest of us for reaping the benefits. I am so thrilled for you today as I know you are squeezing onto Sean and probably fighting politics with my Pawpaw. I'll hold your family in prayer for comfort and I'll celebrate you..... I'm going shopping! xoxo Lesleyann

Ps - my fave photo of you - from my wedding

“ Hey Joe and Scott, I just want to tell you how sorry Jenny and I are about the passing of your wife Doris. We know you miss Doris very much. Also, I remember the good times we had at the Amos Plant during lunch in the lab! Also, I remember the time you picked me and took me to Laidley Field to see St. Albans play Dupont in the football playoffs! Take care!! Love Dan and Jenny Seibert

“ We remember❤️ We remember a woman who was all about her family, a spunky lady that spoke her mind, I always loved that about her:) when Doris and Joe became grandparents for the first time, with their beloved Sean it was game over. He was the most wonderful thing in the world💙 She was such a great grandmother! Rest In Peace Doris , you will be missed by all of us. Give Sean a hug and kiss from aunt Norene and uncle Mike, we appreciate the dimes💕💕
