“ Mart and I both went to WV tech. He graduated a few years before me. I worked with him at WV state government. He was one of the greatest, kindest persons I've ever know. Always helped me if I needed in complex problems. May the the lord bless him.

“ Mart was my coworker at IS&C. He was smart, kind, and down to earth. He cared about and respected people no matter their station in life or their job title. He knew how to make people feel that they mattered. He was a rare and special man. The world will be a little less kind without him. My prayers go with his wife, boys, and all those who grieve his loss.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Mart this past year as one of his physical therapists. In the very few interactions I had with Mart, I could tell what a wonderful person he was, and how much he loved his family. I am so sorry for your loss. Leslie Johnson

“ My thoughts are with Mart's family and friends. I was blessed to have worked and became friends with Mart. He was well respected and respected others. He very much appreciated the people that worked for him and with him. He was intellectual as well as had good ole' common sense. He spoke of his family often. It brought a smile to his face. May the sweet memories eventually fill the emptiness. He is missed by many

“ My heart is heavy. I am so thankful for the example of friendship that was always displayed among Mart and my two brothers, John and Allen Lynch. The Denisons and Lynches go way back. Our parents were best of friends. Katy and Alice were a shining example of friendship and support in times of need. Mart has certainly passed this servanthood on to his family.
Blessed be the tie that binds!

“ I am so sorry that we will not be able to attend Mart's celebration of life on Saturday because we will be out of town. Just wanted to let you all know that we will be there in spirit. Mart was sure a great example to us all and especially to the youth of St. Albans. We were blessed to know him. He is on the top of our list as one of the GOOD GUYS. The Denison family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I had the honor and privilege of working with Mart for several years when he was with the State of WV. He was a great co-worker, manager, and overall phenomenal individual who cared about others and especially his family. He set the bar high for others to follow and was a true leader. He has been and always will be missed by his fellow workers.

God Bless you Mart!

“ It's been 30 years since I was graced by Mart's presence, having moved away from St. Albans all those years ago. I only knew Mart through his work with the church youth group (we were co-leaders for a year). A good guy that never seemed out of place in this world. My deepest condolences.

“ Best example of "pay it forward" that I have ever encountered, late night movies, devoted husband, pistachios, loving father, cookouts - hamburgers and hotdogs at the Denison's house, one of a kind Godfather, baseball, faithful friend, runner, always busy, Charleston distance run, provider, "just one more", "you don't have to go", devoted to job, enjoyed being outside, coach, honest, caring, great hugger and hand shaker, giving, creative, always a good time, family man ... memories have been made and never forgotten

Mart was one of the finest men I've ever known. He was my boss from the time he became a boss until his retirement. He never expected you to "work for him," but always to work with him. He was a wonderful mentor and teacher. He always had our backs and he always wanted to do things the right way, not the convenient way. He didn't enjoy being a boss and schmoozing with the higher-ups. He'd much rather be working in the trenches with the rest of us. He loved his family and when he talked of his grandchildren, his eyes would twinkle in that special way. He fought the good fight. I know there is a crown laid up for him in heaven...
