“ Eddie was a very special friend of my husband, Ray McCoy. Ray was very close to all the "Luke's Service Station" gentleman. His relationships with all those friends meant a great deal to him over the years. Ray genuinely cared about all those "boys" (as he referred to them). Ray passed in January 2019, and he expressed his enjoyment of his friendships with many of those gentleman. My deepest condolences to Eddie's family and friends. Heaven is richer by gaining both Ray and Eddie. They are both greatly missed. Prayers for all of Eddie's family. Janis McCoy (Ray's wife)

Eddie Grant was one of my favorite cousins We shared a lot of love and compassion for one another . I always looked up to him as he d give great advice knew everything that was wrong or could go wrong with an automobile One time I got to see him ride his four wheeler in Kentucky Eddie was always joy filled he lit up a room and had a great sense of humor . He had old fashioned morals and undying love for Paulette and for his children and grandchildren Just leaves a huge void in many lives including mine and Billy McCallisters too ! Gone but never ever forgotten Some of my best days with Cassidy and Joss was going to the Chevron to visit the Grant boys And Luke Whitt .

“ Eddie had become a good friend over the past few years. His love for his family was very important to him and his love for God was clearly witnessed everyday. He witnessed to me through his treatment of his friend's and customer's. He always treated people with respect, dignity, honestly and fairly. Doing unto others spoke volumes through Eddie. I will miss him and pray that his solice in his life well lived in love.
