“Ike was such a good neighbor. I got to know him from the time he started building the house on the corner until now. He always looked out for my grandkids riding their bikes down the street. If they got past his driveway he would send them back. As they grew up they would stop and talk with him, he was so kind and was always joking with them. My heart is really so broken, such a sweet kind soul. He is so sadly missed already and always will be.

“Ike was such a good man and a good neighbor. Never short on conversation. Always had time to talk. I lived across Short St from him for 6 years. If I left my garage door open he would always call me and let me know. He will be missed.
