“ I loved Eddy and Jane very much!! My heart is broken, you go Rest High On That Mountain Eddy!! I loved your sense of humor and the beautiful smile you always had no matter what the day may have brought for you!!! I remember the day all so well when you brought the Fur Babies at my work for me to choose one, actually Mocha chose me and I still have her!! I'm so glad and it was an honor to know such a great man!!!

“ Such a kind, sweet , loving soul. It didn't take long for Brian and I to warm up to Eddy. He just had a special charm to him right down to his toe nails. We will miss you friend. Heaven has gained another angel.

“ Eddy was a bright light in our Beacon Baptist family and I'm so grateful he followed Ms. Jane to our church. At first he was so quiet and kinda gruff looking. As I too am a people watcher, I knew he was observing but once Jesus had his heart a big bubble of love bursted and he over-flowed with happiness. I always picked my spot in church in front of Ms. Jane and Eddy mainly because when my lil 3 yr old granddaughter would be tagging along, she always played a lil peek at Eddy game and he never ever minded and I often seen a lil gleam in his eye and half a smile that told me there was ALOT of teddy bear behind that "gruff" look I once thought. Eddy was a doer, a helper, a joker, he loved life, he loved Ms. Jane, his family, he even loved the four legged fur babies he some times "grumbled" about, he also loved his Pepsi and turned out he was quite the cook too who was always willing to partake in the kitchen. Eddy you left us all too soon, I was planning on adopting you as my big brother since my blood brother hasn't talked to me in 11 yrs. We all know you're in heaven Eddy probably already made Jesus your breakfast casserole. So til we meet again brother. I for one will forever miss you. Hugs and prayers to your family.
Love always ~~ Debbie, Makynlee and Delaynie

“ Eddy was always sharing a good story and laugh. He enjoyed our trips to the State Parks and eating out. He was far too young and full of life to have left so soon. Rest in Peace Eddy and thanks for sharing wonderful times with my sister, Jane Ellen.

“ I’m so sorry. Eddy definitely loved to shop. I think he is the reason for the phrase “shop till you drop” 😊

My prayers are with you.
