

Edward Lee Whittington

July 25, 1961 - June 3, 2024

Edward Lee Whittington was born on July 25, 1961 and entered into the Lord Jesus' presence on June 3, 2024. Ed was the youngest child of Frank and Allie Whittington (Trent) of St. Albans, WV. He was a 1980 graduate of Hurricane High School. He was married to his wife of 41 years, Tina (Morris) on July 10, 1982.

Ed was a proud father, Pop, and uncle. He loved to study his Bible, talk of what he had learned, to read, spend time outdoors, and most of all to spend time watching and playing with his grandchildren. Ed was a member of Calvary Baptist Church of Hurricane, WV. He loved his church family and enjoyed fellowship with believers.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Frank Whittington and Allie Trent of St. Albans, and grandchild "Baby Whittington" (miscarried 2013).

He is survived by his beloved wife: Justine (Tina) Whittington; son: Frankie Whittington Scott Depot, WV; son and daughter-in-law: Bill and Elizabeth Whittington Ponca City, OK; and seven grandchildren: Phoebe, Priscilla, Moses, Elisha, Simeon, Corrianna, and Tabitha Whittington. He is also survived by his siblings: Charles (Suzy) Whittington, Rita Woodall, and Ronny (Debbie) Whittington; and siblings-in-law: Robert (Barbara) Morris, Patricia Morris, Joni (Bill) Winkler; and many nephews and nieces.

Most of all, Ed loved the Lord Jesus. In his last conversation with his son, Bill, Ed said, "The gospel is simple: Christ died for my sins and rose again." In that hope, Ed will be laid to rest in the family cemetery in Scott Depot, WV. His soul in the presence of Jesus. His body awaiting the blessed hope of Jesus' return.

Tina, Frankie and Bill invite family and friends to Celebrate Ed's Life at Calvary Baptist Church 3653 Teays Valley Road Hurricane, WV on Monday June 10, 2024 at 11:00 am with Pastor Aaron Karr officiating. A private family burial will occur in the family cemetery on the farm.

The family will receive friends Sunday from 6:00pm until 8:00pm at the church.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Ed's name may be made to: Calvary Baptist Academy Scholarship Fund, Calvary Baptist Academy Attn: Scholarship Fund 3655 Teays Valley Rd. Hurricane, WV 25526.

Anyone wishing to leave an online memory may do so by visiting Ed's tribute page at: www.chapmanfuneralhomes.com.

“ It was our privilege to meet him when they would visit Pastor Bill during his years leading our church in Ticonderoga, NY. What a fine testimony he had for Christ, continuing through his exceptional pastor-son whom God raised up to impact so many lives with the Gospel! We are grateful for this dear man who persevered through heartaches and suffering as a humble disciple of Christ! What a WELCOME HOME he had in Heaven!

“ Eddie was rooted strong in his faith in God. That faith spilled over into every aspect of life. He was a model for those seeking the Way through God. I'm honored to have known him and have heard him speak of his love in God and his family. I pray for Justine, Franklin, and Bill in this time, as well as the whole family. He won't be forgotten, nor will his words and actions walking in faith. Tina&Frankie- my heart is with you both. Please reach out for anything.

“ May God comfort the entire family and give everyone the peace needed during this time. We have very fond memories of Eddie during our times together at church and VBS. I can never forget his great care and teaching which helped shape Elizabeth. We were very sorry to hear this news of his passing and will not be able to attend any services.

Our prayers and love, Jim and Kathy Bowyer

“ My Uncle was the MOST kind, loving, accepting man I've EVER known. He loved his family so dearly, & he was a follower of God's word. He had a one-of-a-kind sense of humor & I will never forget that laugh!! It was unique...just like the man the laughter came from...I love you, Eddie..I will miss you!!! Love you..Amy
