“ I remember Bill and Libby as being wonderful Sunday School teachers when I was a kid. On one occasion they took us kids up to a campground (possibly the FMC Campgrounds). They always gave to us selflessly.

Libby Hanna was my Sunday-school teacher in the early '70s when I attended St. Peter's each week. I left St. Peter's in 1973 when I was junior-high age, but I never forgot Mrs. Hanna--especially her warm smile and gentle way.
