“ Found memories of sitting in the front yard drinking pepsi and planting tomatoes rain or shine. Nothing can replace the joy of picking up twenty plastic penquins at Home Depot after Christmas and craming them in my SUV. Nell was kind and generous always thinking of Bobby and Roger and my mother with food gifts and trinkets she would pick up. I loved her beans and corn bread and no one told a good story like she did. The Hathaway family loved Nell she is still apart of our conversations through out the year.
