

Emma Lou Dearman

June 15, 1939 - October 20, 2016

Emma Lou Dearman, 77 of Deltona, Florida, formerly of Scott Depot, passed away Thursday October 21, 2016 at the home of her mother.

Lou was born on June 15, 1939, to the late Emanuel and Clarice Pauley. She was also preceded in death by her husband Orus W. "Odie" Dearman, and brother Edward Pauley of Waukon, Iowa.

Lou was retired from Union Carbide, South Charleston Plant. She enjoyed visiting her grandchildren, going to yard sales, and living in sunny Florida. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She is survived by her sons Whit Dearman(Dana) of San Mateo CA, and Brian Dearman(Cheryl) of Greensboro NC; mother Clarice Hatfield of Hurricane; sisters Sue Kopinsky of Charleston, and Karen Pauley of Charleston; brother David Pauley of South Charleston; and grandchildren, Emma, Charlie, Jimmy, Josh, and Brady.

Funeral services will be at 11:00am Tuesday, October 25, 2016, at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane with Pastor Stan Maynard officiating. Burial will follow at Cunningham Memorial Park.

Friends may visit the family one hour prior to the service at the funeral home.

“ Lou was a good fellow Union Carbide employee. Unfortunately, we sort of lost track of each other after retirement, but I ran into her several times when she was back in WV visiting from Florida. My condolences to the family.
Sincerely, Annette Montoya

“ Lou and I met at Union Carbide in 1960 and have been friends ever since. We kept in touch by e-mail and she would visit me when she was in WV. Our last e-mail was October 17 when she sent an update on her mother and sale of her house in Florida. I have many happy memories of her and know this is a difficult time for the family.
