“ Through her daughter Marcy, my wife Bev and I became friends with the Beasley family often visiting their home on Lexington Drive when we were in that part of the state. When Mr. Beasley was still living I used to enjoy their interaction sitting on the couch or at the kitchen table acting like two school children who were in love. Always enjoyed our times with Miss Erma; her sweetness was immeasurable. Will miss her but sure would have liked a peek into Heaven when she and Jim reunited. Prayers for the Beasley family and all their many friends.

“ I have many fond memories of my Aunt Erma remembering when her and her family and I would gather at my grandmother Nora Kidd home with my uncles and some of my cousins she will surely be missed by so many. We know that one day we will meet again. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Mack Ray & Family

“ Erma was my favorite great aunt and with her husband Jim having eight sisters, that says a lot. Growing up, I always enjoyed the visits from her family to Beckley. I remember her as tough but fair and always loving. While I grieve her passing, I rejoice that she is now in the arms of her savior, Jesus Christ. My deepest condolences to her family. I know she will be missed. With love, John Walker

Erma was such a friend when I worked for the church. When ever I went to her house she had coffee and cake or pie for me. We would laugh at the silliest thing. Rest In Peace sweet Erma Sad I didn't take the time to visit you after I left the Church

“ The very first time I met my future mother-in-law, I was surrounded by an astounding number of family members. Coming from a rather small family, I believe Erma sensed I was a wee bit intimidated. She was sitting next to me in the middle of this wonderfully lively family and patted my knee with her hand and said, "Don't worry honey, you'll get used to us!" And she was right...I will miss you. I love you mom. Lee

“ I was a blessed person to know Mama B, I type in tears ,as the times I visited her, I got way more from it than she did, her smile, her twinkly blue eyes, a Pat, an I love you, she always made my day, and she was doing a good deed and didn't know it. You all were blessed,and someday you will be with her again. Prayers and much love to all of you, especially my Marcy. Love Reca
