

Evelyn Zdrojewski

January 11, 2013

Evelyn Zdrojewski of St. Albans passed away gently on January 8, 2013. She leaves behind her four sons; Eugene Jr., William (Cirilla), Robert (Samantha) and David (Donna), eight grandchildren 12 great-grandchildren.

Born Evelyn Lissette Warren in 1920, she was preceded in death by her devoted and loving husband, Gene Sr. Evelyn loved art, music, books, poetry, history, ideas and all things old. A charter member of WV Writers, Inc., she was a gifted poet, writer and painter. She saw value in things that others didn't want: broken glassware, dolls, old quilt pieces and books. In their later years, Gene Sr. patiently drove her to estate sales and antique stores every week, waiting in the car as she spent hours browsing other people's stuff. Through these weekly trips she came to be known as the doll lady and many people brought their old dolls to her to be fixed and dressed. She was nostalgic for her Richmond Virginia Churchill neighborhood and often spoke and wrote of her experiences growing up there. She was interested and extraordinary. We celebrate her life. We give special thanks to her caregivers and good friend, Donna Lude, Cim, Liz, Joyce and Jill who helped and comforted her in her final years.
