

Evo Aaron Baker

June 13, 2018

Evo Aaron Baker, cherished son of Frances Pais Baker and loving sister Renae Phillips, passed away on Wednesday, June 13, 2018 just four days shy of his 39th birthday.

Aaron fought a life long battle with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, outliving life expectancy of this disease by many years. Aaron was always courageous and positive. He cherished every day. His light, love and laughter will forever be missed by his mother and his beloved sister more than there are words to express.

Aaron was also the son the late William (Bill) Baker, grandson of the late Elbert and Hattie Baker and grandson of the late Hank and Marie Pais.

In addition to his immediate family Aaron is survived by his uncle Michael Pais, aunt Susan Scherer of Virginia. His uncle and aunt Wayne and Martha Baker, and aunt Barbara Lafferty of Beckley, WV.

Graveside services will be held Sunday, June 17, 2018 at 2pm at Valley View Memorial Park in Hurricane, WV.

The family asks in lieu of flowers for donations to the Muscular Dystrophy Association specifying the donations be for Duchenne research.
