Faatali P. "Tali" Gaydosz 60, of Fraziers Bottom, WV passed away at home surrounded by her family on December 31, 2025.

She was born to Perefoti and Tamia Nofoa Ieremia on December 18, 1965 in Pago Pago, American Samoa. She was preceded in death by her father, Perefoti Ieremia and her brother Aleki Ieremia.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Peter J. Gaydosz; her beloved children: Steven (Miranda) Gaydosz of Culloden, WV, David (MacKenzi) Gaydosz of Scott Depot, WV, Taylor (Evan) Haley of Hurricane, WV; and her treasured grandchildren: Steven, Lincoln, Myles, Cruz, Vallie and Maven Gaydosz who were the light of her life; she is also survived by her loving Mother: Tamia Ieremia; Siblings: Filemoni Ieremia, Saaga Filoiali'i, Ta'avili Ieremia, Naomi Ieremia, Fa'afetai Ieremia, Helen Heather and Jeremiah Ieremia.

Tali graduated with her Bachelor of Science from WVSU and was a Counselor with a nonprofit, Council of Three Rivers, where she dedicated her time to helping and uplifting others. Above all else, Tali was a woman of deep and unwavering faith. She lived her life as a reflection of God's love, through kindness, patience, generosity, and quiet strength. Throughout her courageous battle with cancer, she remained steadfast in her belief, choosing peace over fear and hope over despair. Even in her hardest moments, Tali only spoke of gratitude.

Family was at the center of Tali's heart. She found her greatest joy in time spent with her loved ones, especially her grandchildren. She was also deeply proud of her Samoan heritage and made it a priority to share her culture, values, and faith with others, honoring where she came from and glorifying God in all she did.

“ To my aunt who had the softest yet angelic voice, a laughter that could fill up the world and a heart bigger than any mountain and any giant.

Hi aunty Tali,

It's me your niece who stays in the back drop most times.

To my loving beautiful lady of and in Christ,

I wish I had the opportunity to learn you more than what I had already learned of you.

Your heart so kind It melted at the touch, Your voice so angelic It carried its tune throughout the world and into different hearts, Your eyes had such a beauty and joy with a strong warrior presence of God inside. Your children; the reflection of light unto the world the labors and the fruits of your tree are just as magnificent and glorious as you. May your legacy never die, May your spirit continue to rise and feel this earth with light and may your heart continue to melt and soften those in this world I love you then, I love you now, and I will always love you forever more. I will see you at the gates of heaven when our time arrive May you suffer no more May your laughter feel the heavens Your eyes seek the glory of God and may you continue to watch over your family who is the true jewel and gems of your legacy.

Take care in spirit and in truth.

You have fought the good fight and you have completed the task of God at hand,

Now rest my beautiful soulful angel as you have been mounted on wings of eagles, so I say glory be to God in all times and days and may you now be reunited with the heavenly sisters and brothers of God and our Father in heaven. No more pain, No more Stress, No more worries as you fought and have done the work I am proud of you but know your spirit is strong and alive, I Love You Aunty.

Until we meet again

Your Niece Cheyanne Ieremia

“ Our deepest sympathies and condolences go out to the dear Gaydosz family. We love you all very much. Our love and prayers continue to be with each and everyone of you during this difficult time. Our family has so many great memories of and with Tali. Our dear, Tali, "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all" (Proverbs 31:29). Tali was an amazing, God-fearing, a rock to our family and so many. She had the most beautiful loving, caring, kindest, wisest and compassionate soul to ever be around. A true one in a million! Her strong faith in God and the love she had for her family showed in everything she did. A warrior in many ways. Her smile and soft spoken voice was comforting. She was always reaching out to help others. I am honored to be called her friend and sister; she will truly be missed.

We love you all,
Gilham Family.

I met Tali and all the Gaydosz family when they moved to Winfield when the children were all very young. She was always a beautiful woman with an exceptionally beautiful smile and kind heart. She was always a wonderful, caring mother who always put her children first, and raised three beautiful, handsome children. She was such a caring and sweet neighbor and I thought the world of her. My heart rejoices in knowing she is with her Heavenly Father where she will live forever more and will await for her family and loved ones to be with her one day. Rest in peace sweet Tali.

“ It’s hard to think about moving forward without Tali. We will carry her memory in the way we work, the way we treat each other, and the way you showed us how to lead with compassion.

You helped create a culture of care, just by being yourself. That’s not something you can teach. It’s something you live.
