“ My Aunt Faye was one of the cutiest, funniest, giggliest, sweetest, kindest, loving, compassionate & merciful Christian Aunt, my friend & woman that I have ever met besides my Mom (Mary Lou Turley Lynch) deceased now. I will always remember Aunt Faye's beautiful sparkling shiny big blue eyes & big smile that you would want to just hug her! We would talk for hours sometimes about a little bit of everything. My Uncle Charlie & Aunt Faye were God's Foot Army going before me on rededicating my life back to JESUS CHRIST AS MY LORD & SAVIOUR at 19 years old. They have both been such wonderful family to me & all my family. My husband (Jim Williams) deceased, loved my Uncle Charlie. They would laugh together whether they were together talking or on the phone. They were both (A MAN'S MAN) kind of guys. Uncle Charlie tried to always inform my Jim about VET Health Benefits & encourage & pray for Jim because Jim had a terminal blood disease from Vietnam that the cancer destroyed all of the inside & outside of his body. My Uncle Charlie has been & will always be my (Fire Cracker) Uncle. They both always looked after me & kept in touch all thru my life & I am so blessed & thankful for each one of them & the Christian legacy they always walked before me & I know for Eternity. God bless you both & your families.

“ My Aunt Fay always shared God’s love in all she said and did. She dearly loved all her family and in turn was loved deeply by all of us. She set a wonderful example for younger women to follow as a wife, mother, and home maker. She gave hospitality to everyone who visited. When I visited she took time talking and listening and let me know I was important to her. She is now with her Savior, but her passing took a bright light from this world. Aunt Fay will be greatly missed but her legacy will endure.

“ Remembering my friend Faye puts a smile on my face. We shared so many good times and laughter. Serving on the church Benevolence Committee together, we spent many hours setting up, serving and cleaning up funeral dinners. One stands out in my mind that was held at a sister church in another city. We had loaded the food at our church, and when we arrived we found that the kitchen and dining area were many steps from where we could park, and we were the only ones serving. We motivated each other with our shared laughter and encouragement. At the end of the day, we rubbed our tired feet and were quite pleased that we had blessed a family who was grieving.
I wish I could be there to serve Faye’s funeral dinner, but the coronavirus prevents me from coming. I am blessed by her friendship and love.
