“ To the Family of Gayle Edwards Rowsey.

I attended Elementary, Jr. High School and High School with Gayle and remember her as a very pretty, sweet person. She was our Miss Highlander 1955 at Huntington East High and every one thought the world of her.

My deep and sincere sympathy in the loss of your loved one and I pray God will comfort each of you at this sad time.

“ To Vicki, Jeff and the rest of the family, I send you my most sincere condolences. Gayle was my cousin, and I have many happy childhood memories as my sisters and I grew up in the same Huntington neighborhood as Gayle and her brothers and sisters, at one time living right across the street from them. I know Gayle will be missed by many.
