“ I was a member of the King Street Bridge group with the greatest group of ladies. They welcomed me with open arms. Katie was an awesome bridge player and a really sweet lady. I think that we have only one other member still here with us. My prayers go up for the family, Katie was a great lady...

“ Katie was such a great friend and wonderful neighbor She was such an inspiration to all who knew her. She was always in the backyard working on her flowers. We shared the love of our dogs. Her daughter Karen took such great care of her. Now she will be looking down from Heaven smiling on us all. Loved you Katie. You will be missed.
