

Flossie Mayes

May 1, 2012

Flossie Madalen Mayes, 94, of St. Albans, passed away Saturday April 28 at Belle's Assisted Living. Flossie was born August 23, 1917, in St. Albans, and was a daughter of the late R.R. Barker and Lillie Mae Watson. She was the owner of M&M Organics in St. Albans and was a former member of the Collis B. Huntington Railroad Historical Society. Flossie attended both Abney Street and Scary Creek Churches of God. In addition to her parents, Flossie was preceded in death by her husband, John Philip Mayes. Flossie is survived by her children, John Philip Mayes II and his wife Joyce of St. Albans, and Phyllis Vandale and her husband Robert Jr. of Scott Depot; her granddaughters, Tammy Griffith and Deborah Barker, both of St. Albans; and her great grandsons, Brandon Barker and Quincy Bruton. The funeral service will be at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, May 1, at Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, St. Albans, with Rev. Robert E. Underwood officiating. Burial will follow in Cunningham Memorial Park. Visitation will begin two hours prior to the service at the funeral home. The family would like to give a special thank you to Sharon Daily and the caregivers at Belle's Assisted Living in St. Albans for the care and concern shown toward our mother and grandmother.
