

Frances Maynard

July 9, 2017

Frances Maynard, 94 of Charleston passed away Sunday July 9, 2017.

She was the daughter of the late Wilie and Carrie Copley. She was preceded in death by her husband Paul Maynard, grandson James P. Maynard "Jamie", six brothers and two sisters.

As a young woman she was a school teacher and during World War II she went to Detroit and worked for the war effort.

She was a gifted artist working with pottery and ceramics. She was a warm and caring wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

She is survived by her daughter; Cheryl Maynard of Charleston; son Paul Maynard and his wife Patricia of Florence, SC; granddaughter, Veronica Harden and husband Charlie and great-grandson, Christopher Harden of Florence, SC.

The family would like to thank the staff of Eastbrook Nursing Home for all of their kindness.

A private service will be held at Cunningham Memorial Park, St. Albans.

Bartlett-Chapman Funeral Home, family-owned and located at 409 Sixth Avenue, St. Albans is honored to serve the Maynard family.

Tribute Wall

“ Frances Maynard

October 06, 2023 at 08:41 AM

“ About 30 years ago, my family and I lived next door to Mrs. Maynard. We moved there and did not know anyone. She befriended us and was so kind to us, especially my children. After we moved we stayed in touch but somehow lost touch with each other. Over the years I have thought of her often. My sympathies to her family. From Carol Benko-Meyer, a neighbor and a friend.

Carol Ann - August 07, 2017 at 07:30 PM