“ I have great memories of Glen. He was a good friend and co-worker. We worked together at Union Carbide for many years. We enjoyed going to lunch together, working on his camp in Tennessee, snow skiing, and attending the “Carbiders Lunches” he organized to get retirees and still-working friends together for a time of fellowship. He was devoted to his family. He loved each one dearly, and especially enjoyed bragging on his grandkids. He will be deeply missed. Phil Tate
