“ I work many years with Freida in banking. We were friends as well as coworkers. Freida was a loving and giving person. Loved to bake and do crafts. She shared this talent with everyone. She was a devoted Christian--devoted to Jesus and serving others. I admired her strength during her illness--never complained but accepted things with the help of her Lord. I thank him so much for allowing me to become friends with you. This special lady was a joy to know and a mentor to so many. Your free at last Freida to sit with Jesus, friends and family. Your joy is everlasting here on earth and now in Heaven!

I remember when you, Mable and me would be meet for lunch after we retired. We had so much to talk and laugh about just to catch up. Then the waiter came and told us we have to leave unless we ordered something else. We apologized, paid the bill and left. We continue to enjoy ourselves all the way home.

Your free now my friend, to talk to Jesus, family and friends who have met you there in heaven. Miss you, but I look forward to seeing you again!
