“ Mamaw, I miss you so very much! I remember big family gatherings at your house with lots of good food, hugs, and laughter. We would gather around the piano with guitars and singing. I guess I inherited my alto voice from you! I remember sleeping in the roll-away bed with 4 quilts piled on top in the winter time. I remember Christmases with lots of presents and your unique bubbling lights on the tree. We picked vegetables out of your garden in the summer time and sat strung green beans until our fingers hurt. We played Frisbee in the yard. I remember when Papaw's overalls froze stiff on your back porch. You are so greatly missed and loved. See you soon- when Jesus comes! I love you! Regina (Gina) Dent Montgomery- her oldest grandchild.
