“ Georgie was my first love. We were both too immature in our teens for it to survive, but I managed to stop and see her every few years before she got married. Our love as old familiar friends developed over time, and I was pleased to know that she had finally found true love and marriage. Georgie was a good, wonderful person, and is now a pure spirit. I will never forget her.

“ *"Georgie" will be greatly missed by myself, her step-daughter, and by my 3 children, Sarah D. Stratton, Tucker S. Steele, & Abigail H. Steele. She was always so very kind, thoughtful, & generous to us throughout the years. I feel certain that all who knew her feel exactly the same way. Rest in divine peace, Georgie...
