“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Times like these can be extremely difficult and heartbreaking. I want to share a scripture that brings me comfort in times like these.

Rev 21:3-4 reads, "3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

I hope that this will bring some comfort to the family during this difficult time.

“ Gladys and I are second cousins. Her father, Henry Perry was a brother to my grandmother, America (Perry) Chaffin. We however did not have much contact until I became the Credit Manager for an electrical supply company some 40 years ago. Gladys was the credit manager for our competitor here in Huntington. I began work for this company some 23 years after Gladys went to work for the competitor. I would tease her from time to time saying that I was in a play pen when she started working for our competitor which was the truth. She would tell me not to start that stuff again.

Gladys was a very serious minded individual who wholly gave her all to her employer as if she was the owner of the company. Her employer was blessed to have an employee like Gladys. She was considered their right hand person. I know that Gladys worked numerous times when she did not feel well enough to go to work.

We took a couple of business trips together to go to a court hearing and a seminar. We also went to lunch a few times. I could always get her to loosen up, laugh and have a good time. We would talk about the struggles we had as credit managers and about our families. She was always interested in knowing about my family.

I have missed talking with her frequently as we did when she was working. I will miss her more now that she is no longer with us. I look forward to sitting down with her in Heaven and talking about old times.
