“ There are few times in your life's journey a very special person comes into your life. Glenna was someone who we such a kind, gentle spirit. Never judging and accepting of everyone. I was privileged to be her friend at SAJrHS and SAHS. As people age and each go our separate ways I would always remember her. I was blessed to have shared part of my journey with this beautiful soul.

“ Delbert, Arnie just found out last night that Glenna had passed on to her heavenly home. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. We can't be there for you because Arnie has been (is still) very ill. Just know that we care deeply for you.

“ This truly saddens my heart to read this, however knowing her soul rests with Jesus is a comfort and I do pray all will take comfort knowing this. As I began my walk in the ministry at New Haven House of Prayer starting those facebook live feeds, I was discouraged at times over the low numbers of people watching, however I could always find Glenna on the site offering words of encouragement and love. She truly put wind in my sails and helped me continue the ministry and never look back.

I shall miss our facebook chats, her memories and comments that truly lifted my spirits.

God rest you're soul Glenna Childers, you made a positive impact on so many of us out here and I shall truly miss you, but will one day see you in heaven where we shall all gather, wipe away all the tears and rejoice Peace and prayers to all.
