“ Charles, again my prayers are with you and your family, especially your mother. It ends up I was praying for your dad specifically when he was in the hospital. Your sister and I belong to the same church but I haven't been in over a year, but I do have my prayer time and do my Daily Devotional and an email was sent to pray for your dad. I'm not sure that I knew that his name was Harold - all I ever heard was "dad." I will always remember how you always told me things that your dad taught you. Considering the wonderful man you are, he was wonderful too and your mother is.
