“ I remember Edsel from school -- he was older but always so kind to me...

“ Back in 1987, I was sitting outside their place in Manchester, while Harold grilled. He laughed and said "who'd ever believe we be here so far from Texas and you without John D and me with a wife and daughter". Linda Boswell Grant was one of my closest and dearest friends for many years. My ex introduced Harold and Linda. Now they all are at rest with the Lord. He was a good man and a better friend. I feel blessed to have known him and through him many of his family members. God Bless Us, everyone
