“ I'm just now hearing of Mr Nutters passing. I only knew him from our many chats at Walmart. It seems like we were always there at the same time. What a sweet delightful man he was! Many prayers and condolences to the family.

“ Herb was the uncle that I was closest to of all my Dads brothers. We did not stay in touch a lot but the several times I would stay in touch over the years with him I think we enjoyed each others company. He informed me more about my Dad than anyone. Every time we would see each other Danny, Terry and Aunt Eva would have to be mentioned. I know he adored all three of them. I, like most everybody never heard him say anything bad about anyone. When I was going through a divorce I would stop and see him fairly often and probably said some negative things about my ex wife. I never heard him make any negative comments about his ex wife Betty ever. I never will forget his combat service and how much I looked up to him for that. I will miss more than anything how well he would greet you when he seen you. Curt Nutter

“ To Herb's family, I cared for him dearly as a neighbor and a friend. He always shared his music, his kindness with me. I shall cherish his friendship always. I will miss seeing him make his trips to Biscuit World while I was leaving to go to work. Always a smile, a wave and a kiss in the air. This is something he wrote and shared with me and it gives me much comfort now and I want to share with you...

"Each Step of the Way"

*Whatever I do whatever I say I need Jesus,
My savior, each step of the way
When I am at work or if I'm at play, I need
Jesus, my savior, each step of the way.*

*Wherever I go, wherever I stay, I need
Jesus, my savior, each step of the way.
When I am called home one beautiful day,
I want Jesus, my savior, each step of the day.*

*Each step of the way, each step of the way,
I want Jesus, my savior, to show me the way.
When I am called home one beautiful day,
I want Jesus, my savior, each step of the way.*

*When the last trumpet sounds and he calls us away,
We'll meet Him in glory that beautiful day.*

...Herb Nutter, Words and Music

All I can say is Amen. Rest in peace Herb. You will be missed.

“ In 1964 I started working at Sears and Roebuck in the boys department. Herb worked in the men's department next to us. I was in high school at the time. Herb took time to teach me the ins and outs of retail when my supervisor was not available. From time to time before the store would open, Herb and Larry Covert would play guitars and sing. Those were special days for a kid learning how to work. Basil E. White, Jr.
