“ Todd was such a special person to our family, since the first time we met him at Bob Evans. Our daughter absolutely loved him, she asked to see him every week..."is it Thursday? I need to see Scooter!" He was such a kind, genuine person, who touched countless lives. Every time I spoke to him, I left feeling happier and lighter....he had that effect on kids and adults alike. He will be greatly missed by many.

We grew up on the same creek, rode the same school bus. He was always smiling, laughing, and joking around..I remember him doing magic tricks on the bus..lol!! When I heard that he had become a clown, I thought how suitable!! He was different in a time when different wasn't cool, but it didn't matter to him. He followed his heart and his dreams..not many ppl can say that! He was always himself. My deepest condolences go to his mom, Mary, who was always his biggest fan, and to the rest of his dear family as the mourn the loss of such a special person. ((Hugs))

“ Scooter and my daughter had a special relationship. When we had heard the news that he had passed, my daughter clasped her hands together and cried. She asked me if he went to heaven with his clown costume on because she knew he just had to because he had to make balloon animals for the kids and make them laugh. She said that Jesus needed him for the children! She is 5! We love you Scooter and will always remember you. God Bless you family thru this difficult time. Valerie Covert

“ I only met him a few times. But time spent in Clown Alley, is always quality time. I found HT to be warm, and smart, inquisitive about my life since leaving RBBB myself.

The soul of a clown, is a different kind of light. And he had that light from within. There is a special love in clowns. Of people, of colors, of light and wonder...of children.

It is deepest condolences I offer, for your loss. When a clown is gone, a dimness does descend. That is the power of clowns to light so many places, and HT was one of them.

I wish peace and love to his family and friends.

“ He was such a sweet and loving person, my son carried his business card around for the longest time because scooter was his friend and I truly think scooter wanted to be everybody's friend. I know some of you may know him personally but he was scooter to me and my family. He turned my little boy into anything he wanted to be whether it was a lion with a sword or Spider-Man with a pirate hat but most importantly he encouraged fun and imagination. He will be missed by so many, such a wonderful person.

“ I just received the news from my dad, he said Scooter the clown passed away. That's who we knew him as "Scooter" and I know many others know him personally but to my family he was somebody who made a little boy turn into a Lion with a cool pirate hat or Spider-Man with a sword. There were no limits for him to see somebody smile. I have a funny story to share and how he would remember my son. One evening during family night at Bob Evans, Scooter was blowing up a balloon and it popped and scared my son and he accidentally peed on scooters shoe and he just laughed it off. But then that's how he always recalled my little boy "hey I remember you, you peed on my shoe" he made everyone feel so good about life and I'll never forget him sharing his story with me and how he was such a fighter. My prayers and thoughts go out to the family. He was a wonderful man and he truly did make the world a better place.

“ Some favorite Todd quotes --

"I get paid in smiles and my bank account is full." -- One of his favorite responses when any reporter asked him how much Ringling clowns got paid.

"Honey, this flower is wilted." -- One of his favorite responses if he was too tired to go grab a bite to eat or hang out after a show.

*To Todd's family,
I met Todd on Ringling, I'm the mom of Alex Ramon who was the zing master on the red unit zing zang zoom. Todd made such a great clown, it was so wonderful to meet him, I actually got to be an honorary clown and he showed me the way! We went out to dinner with him and another clown, great memories for me! I was sadden when I first learned of his brain cancer but saw of his strength in his battle on fb. He brought a lot of laughter to many. If you can out a smile on someone's face that's what matters. Because not everyone can a special person and talent. He will be missed but I'm so glad I got to spend time visiting Ringling and seeing him! My love and prayers of comfort for you. Molly*
