“ I worked with Irene at the West Virginia Board of Regents when our Student Service office was in Kanawha City. I remember her talking about her family and especially her twin sister. My condolences to her family.

“ I had the privilege of working with Irene at the WV Higher Education Policy Commission & she was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. I have such fond memories of her & the many laughs we shared. She was a very special lady! I know how important her family was to her & my thoughts & prayers go out to you at this time. - Judy Kee Smith

“ Dear family, I was shocked at the loss of your mother - sister - I just received a Christmas card from her. She was always so kind, sweet, and one of my most favorite cousins. May the Lord bless you at this time. Marilyn Jones Kasules
