

Jack Roush

March 6, 1936 - December 11, 2015

Jack Roush, 79 of Scott Depot passed away at Bellaire at Devonshire, December 12, 2015 after a long illness.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Thelma Roush, sisters, Pauline Cockrell, Mida Bodkins, Jane Craigo, and brother, Richard Roush.

He is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Bonnie Lucille Roush, daughters, Deborah Harris (Rick) of Goose Creek, S.C., Jackie Bess (David) of St. Albans, sons, John Roush (Pat) of Culloden and Sandy Roush (Susan) of Scott Depot, brother, James Roush of Las Vegas, NV and sister Betty Clendenin of Eleanor. He is also survived by 10 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren and a host of friends.

Jack served in the Army for two years, with one of those years in Germany. He was retired from Union Carbide and Rhone-Polenc where he was a rigger. He was a farmer, loved horses and worked in the local rodeos. He became a Christian and was baptized December 6, 2009 and faithfully attended Community Church of Teays Valley. Jack loved his garden and walking Scott Lane to his farm and back holding hands with Bonnie. They made it a habit to pick up the trash along the way which neighbors took note of and appreciated. Jack was a big man who leaves a big hole in many lives. He will be greatly missed!

A special thanks to all who gave such love and care to Jack during his stay at Bellaire at Devonshire.
