“ Kara, Brian, Emily and Kagen -

I was heartbroken to hear the news of Jacob's passing. As a parent, I can only imagine the grief of burying your child. As his pediatrician, it was my privilege to get to know you and your family, and watch him grow up. He was a very bright, sweet, loving and considerate young man. I know how proud of him you were. Love and prayers to you all, and may the grace of God carry you through and comfort you.

“ Watching the love that Jacob and Valerie have had for each other since high school has been an absolute joy and pleasure. I will always remember Jacob as a light in a dark world. I will never forget how beautiful the love is that they share. Valerie and Jacob are truly the definition of love and kindness. I will never forget the day they first got together. Everyone has always rooted for you both. I am forever grateful to know them.
