

James Linzy Hager

August 1, 2013

James Linzy Hager, 70, of Hurricane died Thursday, August 1, 2013 in Huntington, WV.

Born August 9, 1942 in Boone County, he was a son of the late Jaybird and Jessie Hager. He was also preceded in death by his wife, Jan and granddaughter, Abbey Pendleberry.

He was a graduate of Scott High School and attended Marshall University. He was employed by Union Carbide for 24 years and was retired from the State of West Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles with 18 years of service. He also was a member of Judson Baptist Church, Winfield.

James was a loyal supporter of Marshall University athletics. He was a friendly man who never met a stranger and always had a joke to share.

Survivors include his children, Scott and Stephanie Hager of Huntington, Cynthia (Honey) and Chris Pendleberry of Hurricane; six grandchildren, Morgan Hager, Lesly, Dustin, Jennifer, Elias and Laurel Pendleberry; his brother, Roger Hager and his wife, Margaret of Danville as well as many nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be held at 10am Saturday, August 3, 2013 at Chapman Funeral Home, 3941 Teays Valley Road, Hurricane with Rev. Fred Sparks officiating. Burial will follow in Judson Baptist Church Cemetery, Winfield.

Visitation will be held from 6-8pm Friday at the funeral home.

The family would like to thank John Pinkerman for his lifelong friendship and to Eric Riley, his nurse, who took excellent care of James during his illness.

“ James, you are one of my fondest memories of growing up on Six Mile, WV. The years we shared (they totaled about 64), the stories we could tell will now go unspoken. I know you were in good hands before leaving us but I also know you are in better hands now. Your face will be more than missed in our Reunion pictures. Alice Ellis Gray & husband A J
