

James Cantwell Hayson Jr.

January 12, 1938 - June 24, 2015

James Cantwell Hayson Jr. 77, of Scott Depot passed away Wednesday June 24, 2015 at CAMC Teays Valley, Hurricane.

Born January 12, 1938 in Charleston, he was a son of the late James and Charlotte Hayson. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by his son David Lee Hayson, and sister Charlene Roy.

James was a retired supervisor from Union Carbide after 34+ years of service. He then worked as a contractor for MTI and then CDI. He was a member of the Putnam Lodge 139. He loved his sports channels, boating at Summersville Lake, and spending time with family.

He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Ida Mae Hayson; children and their spouses Dean Alan Hayson (Kim) of Red House, and Debra Ann Hayson of Charleston; grandchildren, Andrew, Jarad and Heather Hayson; sisters Valana Lee Post (Lewis) of Springfield OH, Mary Shamblin of Greenville, SC; and brother David Ronald Hayson (Brenda) of Monterey VA.

Graveside service will be held at 11:00am Saturday June 27, 2015 at Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens with Pastor John Hudson officiating. Burial with Masonic Graveside Rites will follow service at Tyler Mountain Memory Gardens, Cross Lanes.

“ I had the privilege of growing up next door to the Hayson family. Being the same age as Dean, I spent a lot of time at the Hayson household with Dean and David. Jim always treated me like family. A great man I will never forget.
