“ Jim was my neighbor in Pine Ridge in the late 80's. He helped me build a building in my back yard. Really he did the work and allowed me to hold the dumb end of the ruler!! His yard, garage, and house was immaculate. I tried to to copy him In that regard. I will always remember sitting in his garage in a lawn chair and talking with him and Vickie. He was a true Patriot, Great American, Super neighbor, and a friend that could always be counted on. Rest In Peace my friend.

“ We will miss this precious man and thought of him as our own blood related family. My heart aches as I wasn't able to visit him or take him goodies this last year due to the virus outbreak. He always had a smile for me and was so appreciative of any sweet treats I would bring him. I will miss our conversations for now, but will see you later Jim.
