

James LeMaster

April 8, 2013

Rev. James H. LeMaster, 80, of St. Albans, departed this life on Monday, April 8, 2013, after a short illness.

He was the only son of the late Henry and Dorothy LeMaster. He was also preceded in death by his son, William "Bill" LeMaster.

He was a United States Army veteran of the Korean War, a retiree of Union Carbide as a master lab technician, an active minister of Marlaing Gospel Tabernacle for several years and a volunteer chaplain for Thomas Memorial Hospital.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Agnes; son, James "J.L." LeMaster; and daughter, Debra Seacrist and her husband, Carl, all of St. Albans. Also surviving are his grandchildren, Tyler LeMaster and his mother, Jamie LeMaster-Milam, Lindsey Seacrist, Brandon Seacrist and Anitra Hundley; one great-granddaughter, Miranda; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Marshall and Diana Pate, Harvey and Catherine Pate, Linda Pate, Sharon and Ronnie Watson, Harry Pate and Nancy and Ralph Cardwell; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

A special thanks to the courageous physicians, nurses and staff at Thomas Memorial Hospital Emergency Department for the care he received. God bless them.

"For God so loved the world, He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life."
