

Jason Absten

July 7, 2018

Jason Absten made his last sarcastically, probably, inappropriate comment on Saturday, July 7, 2018, and as much as he loved to surprise and dumb-found others with humor that they most likely never understood, he was one of the most humble courageous humans to ever grace the Putnam County region.

He was a Cystic Fibrosis warrior who fought his entire life with an inspiring strength and courage that continued into his last days. He never ceased to ask the doctors and nurses entering his hospital room how their day was and reminded them to have a good day as they were exiting. He was a walking miracle.

Jason was an avid track and cross country runner and a graduate of Hurricane High, a WVU alum with two bachelor degrees in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering and a talented auto mechanic. He encompassed a mathematical mind, and a quirky personality that you couldn't help to adore, a fierce love for his family, friends and his sweet dog, Bella. Rarely would he grace your presence without proudly adorning a t-shirt displaying his love for video games and good t.v. shows.

Our loved one is survived by loving parents, siblings, nieces, nephews and an English springer spaniel who will continue to cherish his memory with love and admiration.

Visitation will be from 12-1pm, Thursday, July 12, 2018, at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane. The memorial service will follow at 1:00 pm. All family, friends, and acquaintances are invited to celebrate Jason's life.

“ I wish i had a more recent memory of Jason. Unfortunately over the years i have lost contact w a ton of friends. I always remember hanging out @ Jason & Jaimes house & around the neighborhood....wherever jaime went, jason was sure to follow. Unlike some other of my friends sibilings, he was one i never mined coming along. He was a great kid as well as adult from what ive read. My <3 breaks for Jaime & their family. My familys thoughts N prayers are with them in this time of need. - Mandi Pauley

“ I hadn't spoken to Jason in several months, but there were certain TV shows that always made me think of him or something from an inside joke we had. I cared a lot about him. For some reason he had been on my mind a lot lately, and I was shocked to find his obituary. I wish I had reached out to him. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ To Jason's sister and mom; I may not have known Jason long, but it was clear from the moment he came into our life, he should have been there longer. Rob and I so enjoyed getting to know him over the last couple years. His quick wit and eerie similarities to Rob, made it clear, he was family. He took to our kids like he had known them forever. It's evident you raised a sincere, smart, kind-hearted son. Thank you for making him the man he was. My sincerest sympathies to you all. Sorry I can't be there today but Rob will be.

Sincerely, Leah Burkett

“ This truly breaks my heart. Jason was an amazing guy. I remember riding the bus and chasing him on the playground as kids. He will definitely be missed, but not forgotten. Rest in Heaven, buddy. ❤️

“ While our entire expedition group (including Jason) was fishing on the Greenbriar River, some guys in canoes in the center of a calm, deep section, others parked on the shore and casting from the bank, suddenly a 5 foot long log crashed into the center of the fishing spot!!! We instantly looked to the river bank in the direction that the log flew from, only to find Jason standing there with a huge smile on his face! When we simultaneously yelled, "What the h### are you doing"? Jason simply laughed and informed us, "I'm just trying to help you guys catch some fish". Then we all burst out laughing. That was Jason. I'll always remember and miss this guy. See you on the other side, Jason. Your friend always, Ed Mardis.
