

Jason M. Raines

February 6, 2015

Jason M. Raines of Belmont, formerly of Hurricane, passed away peacefully on Friday, February 6, 2015 due to respiratory failure related to Marfan Syndrome. He was 29 years old.

He was born April 1, 1985 in Red House, first-born son to proud parents John H. and the late Julie M. Gribben Raines. He was a graduate of Poca High School, Class of 2003. Jason was a self-confessed computer and science-fiction fanatic and would talk to anyone who listened about his favorites. He loved to write and was a distinguished writer, having received an award in high school for his poetry. Our big guy was the kindest soul you could meet.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Julie; maternal grandparents, Jack T. and Helen J. Gribben; paternal grandparents, Glenville H. and Betty L. Raines; and four aunts and uncles.

He is survived by his father, John; younger sister, Jennifer; and younger brother, his best friend, Jakob. He is also survived by numerous aunts; uncles; cousins; and second cousins.

The family would like to express their deepest thanks to the team at Cleveland Clinic and CAMC General - Medical ICU. Also thanks to the office of Dr. Scott Miller and his PA, David Adkins. We appreciate them trying to save our big guy.

Funeral service will be 1:00pm Tuesday February 10, 2014 at Chapman Funeral Home, Hurricane with Rev. Cynthia Eakle officiating.

Visitation will be held from 6-8pm Monday at the funeral home.

A memorial service celebrating Jason's life will also be held at 4:00pm Thursday February 12, 2015 at the St. Marys United Methodist Church, 303 Washington Street, St. Marys, WV 26170.

“ Dear Family thank you so very much for educating us on what Jason had (MarFan Syndrome). Maybe now we will be more sympathetic to those who are different than we are. And do more to support their families. But in the mean time this promise will come true in Isiah 33:24. Why can we be so sure ? Because 'with God all things are possible'. (Matthew 19:26) Take care dear family and friends.

Thank you Mycena. My wife also had Marfan's Syndrome. She passed two years ago, also from Marfans. I have two children left. My daughter has it and my youngest son does not. I will keep fighting to get the word out and to allow people to be aware of Marfan's until they find a cure.

“ Jason stole my heart as one of my first friends that I only knew online but loved like my own brother. He was always there for anyone and everyone he cared for.

His sheer enthusiasm in all that he did, his ability to know exactly what to say to make someone else feel better, and his deep love for his family made him one of the sweetest people I've ever had the privilege of knowing. Super tackle hugs Jay. Rest peaceful and be proud of how many lives you touched.

You will always be in my heart.

“ Jay was a wonderful man. He had a way of make you smile and laugh. When I met him I was playing SWG, a online star wars game. But for us playing it was a way of hanging out. We would talk and play for hours. We, Jay and I one year wanted to go see Star Wars in concert. So we got tickets to see it in Raleigh NC. I drove up to visit Jay first and then off we went. Before the show there was an exhibit of Star Wars stuff and so we walked around for 20 minutes. When the show started Jay was wide eyed and with a big smile on his face, the theme begin. Not one time he moved. I am proud to have had the memory of Jay. I miss you Jay and glad I had the chance to know you. Rest in peace. May the force be with you. God bless my friend Jay.

“ Words of condolence never seem to be enough. I know that I am struggling and I can't imagine how hard this must be for all of you. Know that he touched my life, and so many others, in such a big way. He was truly one of the greatest souls I've ever met. I am privileged to have had the few years with him that I did. I am forever changed because I knew him. I wish I'd had time to be more to you. Peace and love to you all.
